REGENT STUDENTS NEED HOUSING - CAN YOU HELP?

Regent students are in desperate need of affordable housing in the Vancouver area. The need for housing has become increasingly acute for couples and families with children, as our students are no longer able to access student family housing at the University of British Columbia (due to UBC's own housing shortages). Do you, or someone you know, have a suite to rent? If so, would you advertise it to Regent students through the portal below?
